Things To Do

The vim of the Vikettes is overwhelming their opposition in the Western Canadian Intercollegiate Basketball Conference, reports athletics director DR. ROBERT BELL. The team now heads the league, thanks to two wins over the University of Manitoba last week. The Vikettes, unbeaten in all six times out this season, play the University of Calgary this Friday and Saturday, January 31 and February 1. Game time at the gym is 8:00 p.m.

The sharp weather made plans fall flat for the noon concert by the Victoria Chamber Orchestra scheduled for January 28. The date is now February 18. Conducting will be HUGH McLEAN (music).

The University and the Victoria Theatre Guild join forces this month in a production of J. M. Synge's famous comedy of Irish peasant life, The Playboy of the Western World. The production, directed by DR. WANDALIE HENSHAW (theatre), will run from February 6 to 15 at the Langham Court Theatre, 805 Langham Court. Featured in the cast are DR. ANTHONY JENKINS (English), PROFESSOR CARL HARE (theatre), and Helen Smith and Harriet Allen. Tickets ($1.75, students $1.00) go on sale Monday, February 3, at Eaton's.

For non-academic gyrations, those with a taste for the exotic might enjoy the Vancouver Island baton-twirling competition to be held at the gym all day Sunday, February 9. It's an open contest, but the deadline for entries has already passed. Sorry.

The University ski team will be sponsoring a "Klondike Night" at the SUB on the evening of February 21. Anyone prepared to bring cash would be welcome.

Received after the deadline for the calendar side was notice of the latest colloquium to be held by the department of biology. On Monday, February 3, Dr. D. B. Mullick of UBC's faculty of forestry will speak on "defence mechanisms of conifers against cellular death, with special reference to the Balsam Woolly Aphid". The meeting will be held in Elliott 166 at 8:00 p.m., with coffee afterwards in the faculty lounge.

Faculty/Staff News

PROFESSOR R. H. GROOMS (art and art history) visited Hawaii earlier this month, to give a lecture on "Modern Sculpture from Moore to Oldenberg" at the Honolulu Academy of Art.

Posies of fellowships have been distributed recently by the Canada Council. Among those receiving awards on campus were DR. JOAN COLDWELL and DR. PAT KÖSTER (English), DR. PETER SMITH (classics), and DR. G. V. DOWNES (French), who have leave fellowships for 1969-70. Other awards went to DR. JAN KUPP (history), DR. RENNIE WARBURTON (anthropology and sociology), and DR. MEL FABER (English).

DR. R. M. PEARCE and DR. L. P. ROBERTSON (physics) attended the "Second LAMPF (Los Alamos Meson Physics Facility) Users' Meeting" in Los Alamos January 16 and 17.

Poetry of the Forties, a critical anthology by PROFESSOR ROBIN SKELTON (English), will be published in Canada next month by Penguin Books.

L'Alliance Française de Victoria heard a lecture in mid-January on "la carence maternelle" (the inadequate role of the mother in today's society), given by MME. MARIE-PAUL VINAY. Madame Vinay, the author of several books on youth and mental health, is a part-time lecturer in French.

The Canada Council has produced a $1,500 grant to support the 1969 conference of the Northwestern Anthropology Association, to be held at the University April 3 to 5. The Provincial Museum is co-host. Program chairman is DR. RICHARD SHUTLER, JR. (anthropology and sociology).

Faculty/Staff News

The Orbilian Society, a world-wide federation of teachers of Greek and Latin, has elected PROFESSOR HERBERT HUXLEY (classics) as its president for 1969. As far as is known, he is the first teacher in Canada to reach this Parnassian height. Previous presidents have hailed from Britain, France, the United States, Australia, and Ceylon.

PROFESSOR RICHARD COURTNEY (theatre) described the University's new program in creative drama in a speech to the annual general meeting of the Canadian Child and Youth Drama Association. The program now has about 50 students attending courses in creative drama and children's theatre.

The University Review Committee, established in accordance with section 11.1 of the tenure document, will be under the chairmanship of PROFESSOR CARL HARE (theatre). Other members are DR. F. T. ALGARD (biology), R. A. L. CARTER (economics), DR. CHARLOTTE GIRARD (history), and DR. HUGH FARQUHAR (education). Alternates are DR. MICHAEL BEST (English), PROFESSOR FRED MARTENS (education), and PROFESSOR DONALD HARVEY (art and art history).

A booklet on pollution problems, edited by DR. JOHN MAUNDER (geography), will be off the University presses a little later than had been expected. Those who have already placed their orders with the evening division, and forwarded their cheques, may be relieved to hear that the delay should involve no more than two weeks. New delivery date is mid-February.

DR. ANN SADDLEMYER (English) is a member of the steering committee of the newly formed International Association for the Study of Anglo-Irish Literature. Her paper on Dublin's Abbey Theatre, given at a recent symposium in Toronto, will be published by the University of Toronto Press in association with Oxford University Press.

Faculty/Staff News

The spring charter flight to Britain, sponsored by the AMS, has been confirmed with a minor change in dates -- now May 17 to June 14. A few places are still available, and should be sought immediately through the SUB. Manager DICK CHUDLEY points out that the families of faculty, staff, and students are eligible for the roster, even if the individual with a University affiliation is unable to make the trip. Fare is only $262 return, from Pat Bay all the way to London.

DEAN FRED T. TYLER (education) welcomed delegates this week to the Seventh Canadian Conference on Educational Research, held at the Empress Hotel under the auspices of the Canadian Council for Research on Education. Faculty members giving papers were MRS. NORMA MICKELSON, DR. CHARLES GALLOWAY, DR. GEOFFREY MASON, and EDWARD OWEN.

The faculty of education was also involved in programming for a three-day educational conference held at Harrison in mid-January, under University sponsorship. In attendance were school-district superintendents from all parts of the province, and a number of other educationists concerned with business activities.

An article by DR. CAROL JOHNSON (English) on the dream songs of British poet John Berryman has been reprinted in the January issue of the Harvard Advocate. Dr. Johnson has also been commissioned to write regular review essays for Art International of Lugano.
